Michelle Cosmi Fern I wish you had a spot to ask questions... I have an 85 y/o grandmother that just moved up to Maine. She cut up her PA License because she was very ill nad could not drive. She is better, but doesn't have good short term memory. I not sure she could find her way to the grocery store and back. She now wants to get a Maine license and drive. Is there any test required at this age. I don't feel she should be allowed on the road for the safety of all.

J.J. McPhee Trained monkeys could do a better job of running and operation the local DMVs. I think the state of Florida really should look into the long term price of training monkeys and the price of bananas to feed them. Compared to the pay and training of these sloth like people who do the ever minimum ever day at work at our local DMVs. I hope DMV.ORG takes my idea and forms some kind of test pilot out of it. Thank you and I hope my suggestions are helpful.

J.J. McPhee Trained monkeys could do a better job of running and operation the local DMVs. I think the state of Florida really should look into the long term price of training monkeys and the price of bananas to feed them. Compared to the pay and training of these sloth like people who do the ever minimum ever day at work at our local DMVs. I hope DMV.ORG takes my idea and forms some kind of test pilot out of it. Thank you and I hope my suggestions are helpful.
